

MEET FERMAI: ART NOUVEAU INSPIRED HERITAGE HOTEL IN SPLIT

One of the most attractive hotels on the Adriatic will open soon, enclosed within a protected cultural property, which once housed the Cooperative Association and later the University of Split. Meet FERMAI, a new place for modern travelers.

Exceptional architecture, top design with carefully selected details, modern, warm, a Mediterranean flair – this is how the new luxury hotel FERMAI, located a few steps from Diocletian's Palace in the center of Split could be described.

The century-old building, one of the few Art Nouveau in this city, is a masterpiece by architect Petar Senjanović, and the sophisticated, relaxing interior is signed by the well-known Croatian Studio Franić Šekoranja.

A touch of Art Nouveau elegance, classic and vintage furniture combined with modern details, determining the flair of our 31 rooms and four suites in the hotel.

FERMAI is a great choice for modern travelers, lovers of superior design, ambient architecture, Mediterranean atmosphere, and true hedonists who want to experience the local atmosphere in the heart of the city.
